UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—MARCH 18.—Before Judge SHIFMAS.

THE ALLEGED MURDER ON THE LONE STAR—ACQUITTAL OF ONE OF THE PRISONERS.

The United States agt. Henry Lowerson, Evan Edwards, and Wm Smith.

This intercetting case, which has occupied the Court for three days, and has been heretofors fully reported, was concluded at a late hour on Saturday afternoon.

It was shown on the part of the secured that whare blood was seen in the bow the steward was in the habit of killing fish and fourly that a harpcon was found fastened in the chans, it having been claimed by the secured who were the only persons in the bow with the decased on the night of the aleged marder, that the match had been hauled overboard in the stempt to harpoon a perpoise; also, that the bark which formed a part of the care of the Lone Star, when saturated with water, caused a red scum, similar in spearance to blood. George M. Curtis, esg., appeared as counsel for William Smith, one of the aneuzed, and who is a member of the Assembly from this city, though quite a young lawyer, sustained the reputation he has gained at Albany as a speaker, by his able summing up of the case in behalf of his client.

The Hon. Delaheid Smith, United States Attorney for this District, made the cloring speach on the part of the presecution.

The Jury retired, under the charge of the Court, at 5 o'clock, tion.

The Jury retired, under the charge of the Court, at 5 o'clock, and after two hours' deliberation returned into Court with a verdict of not guilty as to the accused, William Smith, and with a verdict of guilty of manulanghter as against Edwards and Lowerton.

From John B. Wickersham, esq., firm of Wickersham Hutchison, the celebrated manufacturers of fancy iron we No. 259 Canal-st.:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors the can be conferred upon man, viz., that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most according and dewith, Chronic Diarrhes.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seconed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofand's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be comletely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and whenever I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability. Truly yours, JOHN B. WICKERSHAM.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7, 1862. GENTLEMEN: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect pre-GENTLEMEN: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect pro-duced by the use of "Hooftland's German Bitters" in my family, I have no healtstlem whatever in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia, of about thirteen years standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle save decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its runns for the late-city open. In my individual was of it. I find it to be an un-sequated tonic, and successly recommend its use to the suffer-ers. Truly yours.

The following well-known reversal gentiemen have acknowledged in writing the great benefits they have received from the use of these bitters. Such testimony must certainly convince the most skeptical:
